PREFACE

Civilian Labor Force Estimates For North Caroline is the twenty-fourth in a continuing series. Estimates in this publication supersede all previously published data and include revisions to incorporate more current information.

The publication presents monthly labor force estimates for all counties for 1984 and annual average data for the years 1974 - 1984. The labor force estimates reflect a breakout of employment into major categories and major manufacturing industry groups. Industry titles have been shortened for space purposes. A detailed industry title is shown in Appendix D.

County estimates may not be additive to MSA or State totals due to rounding. Annual average data are provided on reverse side of pages.

Industry employment by place of work for 1975 - 1984 is based on the 1972 Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual. Data for 1974, are based on the 1967 SIC code structure. Data for all industry segments, therefore, may not be strictly comparable.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The labor force estimates shown in this publication were developed using procedures that were designed by the United States Department of Labor. The procedures are described in the Manual For Developing Local Area Unemployment Statistics.

The employment estimates in this publication were derived by segment and are summed for the total. Employment in the manufacturing and nonmanufacturing segments are derived by compiling data from all firms covered by the Employment Security Law of North Carolina, all railroad establishments, and non-profit establishments, and government establishments not covered by the Employment Security Law. Since these data are secured from establishments, they represent employment by place of work. To provide employment estimates that are more in line with national figures, total nonagricultural wage and salary employment has been adjusted to a place of residence concept. In general, the "place of residence" estimate for an area differs from the "place of work" estimate in that an adjustment has been made to remove the effects of commuting and multiple jobholding. Persons involved in labor management disputes some time during the year are counted in the employment totals.

The estimates of "all other" nonagricultural employment are derived by relating current national trends in employment in the segment to census data and to the relative change in nonfarm wage and salary employment in an area.

Unemployment estimates are derived following the detailed methodology included in the Manual For Developing Local Area Unemployment Statistics. The unemployment data are conceptually comparable with those released by the U. S. Department of Labor each month for the country as a whole; however, they are developed on the basis of a different procedure. The national data are based on a sample of almost 60,000 households throughout the country. The county and state information starts with a count of persons filing for unemployment insurance benefits. To this total are added appropriate estimates for unemployed persons who have exhausted their unemployment insurance benefits and are still unemployed; persons who have delayed filing for benefits but who are not working; unemployed persons who applied for benefits but are not qualified to receive them; workers separated from industries not covered by unemployment insurance; and unemployed persons newly entering or reentering the labor force. The estimates thus include all persons who were not at work but were actively seeking work or had made specific efforts to find a job during the preceding four weeks. Unemployed persons are counted by their place of residence.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

Labor Area -- A geographic area consisting of a central community and surrounding territory in which there is a concentration of economic activity or labor demand and in which workers can generally change jobs without changing their residence. In North Carolina a labor area follows county boundary lines and may consist of one or more counties.

Civilian Labor Force -- The total number of employed and unemployed persons, excluding military personnel.

Employment -- All persons who worked for pay or profit, or worked without pay for 15 hours or more per week in a family farm or business.

Unemployment -- All persons who did not work at all but were able, available, and looking for work. Includes all jobless persons looking for work, regardless of whether or not they qualify for unemployment insurance benefits.

Rate of Unemployment -- The number of unemployed as a percent of the civilian labor force.

Nonagricultural Wage and Salary Employment -- All full-time and part-time nonfarm production and nonproduction employees who worked in or received compensation from nonfarm establishments.

All Other Employment -- Nonfarm self-employed workers, unpaid family workers, and domestic workers in private households, i.e., those nonfarm self-employed who worked for profit or fees in their own businesses, professions, or trade; unpaid family workers who worked without pay in a business operated by a member of the household to whom they are related by blood or marriage; and domestic workers in private nonfarm households.

Agricultural Employment -- All operators, managers, unpaid family workers, and other hired workers on farm establishments, including domestic workers in farm households.

SIC Code -- Standard Industrial Classification in numerical code used to categorize industrial establishments by the main activity in which they are engaged. See Appendix D for a listing of the two-digit industrial codes used in this publication.
